

MIDDLE SCHOOL MATH TEACHER*Who We Are

The Social Justice School is a public charter school committed to educating scholars in historically underserved communities in Washington, DC. Our mission is to catalyze an integrated community of middle-school learners to be scholar-activists who are designers of a more just world.

What You Will Do

As a Math teacher, you will be required to deliver lessons that develop students' theoretical and applied mathematical skills utilizing our Illustrative Mathematics curriculum. You will also be responsible for assigning homework, grading assignments and quizzes, and documenting students' progress. To be successful as a Math Teacher, you should possess a thorough understanding of effective teaching practices. Additionally, you will be a part of a determined team of educators who push one another to create and sustain an awareness of the developmental, social, emotional and academic needs of all of our scholars.

The following mindsets and experiences are highly valued for all staff members:

Designer/Entrepreneurial Mindset

- A designer's mindset (the willingness to innovate with discipline)
- An entrepreneurial mindset, including flexibility and comfort with ambiguity
- The ability to be vulnerable and wrestle with discomfort when you might not know the right answer

Instructional Approach

- Comfort in using data to drive instruction
- A demonstrated comfort and success in working with middle school students
- A strong belief that all students can learn at the highest levels and that all students can be successful
- A reflective professional with a growth mindset, including interest in learning new and innovative teaching strategies
- Strong written and verbal communication skills

Social Justice Mindset

- An equity-centered mindset and an advocate for social justice issues
- A focus on the community over the individual (i.e. there is no "I" in team)
- A belief that young people have the capacity to change the world

Committed to Family Engagement

- Establish and maintain relationships with scholars and families based on trust and respect
- Communicate effectively and often with families to communicate scholar progress, triumphs, and challenges
- Attend and support monthly Family Nights/events that invite families into the building
